S4 Inc. Repeats as one of Region's Fastest Growing Companies

Professional Services Company Honored for Fifth Consecutive Year

Burlington, MA (May 11, 2011) - S4 Inc., a professional services company providing mission-critical support to US Government and DoD customers, was recognized by the Boston Business Journal (BBJ) as one of the area's fastest growing private companies. S4 is one of only six companies to earn this honor for five years in a row.

The 2011 Pacesetters list singles out companies that have experienced strong growth despite the tough economy. "We're always honored to recognize dynamic, privately held companies through our Pacesetters program," Business Journal Publisher Christopher McIntosh said. "But it's a special privilege at a time when these businesses are widely recognized as the engines driving our economic recovery. The success of these companies testifies not just to the vision of their owners and employees but also to the health of our region."

Chandu Shah, President and CEO of S4 Inc. stated, "S4's priority is to help the team – our customers, employees, and teammates - succeed. This commitment is what has helped us to remain successful, even in the most difficult times."

S4 joined the other winners at the annual Pacesetters Awards breakfast held at the Fairmont Copley Plaza in Boston, MA.
