S4 Inc. earns ISO/IEC 20000-1:2018 certification

Bedford, MA (April 26, 2022) – S4 Inc., a defense contractor specializing in Enterprise IT Services, Cybersecurity, and Professional Services, was recently awarded ISO/IEC 20000-1:2018 certification for its Service Management System. This certification validates S4’s capability to provide a consistent approach to the service lifecycle, ensuring high quality of service to customers. Coupled with the company’s existing ISO 27001:2013 and ISO 9001:2015 certifications, this demonstrates S4’s commitment to customer satisfaction, total quality management and continuous improvement throughout the organization.

“We have always been focused on providing customers with only the highest quality services in support of their mission,” said Chandu Shah, President and CEO of S4 Inc. “This ISO certification validates that commitment and builds upon our culture of reliability and consistent improvement.”
